The image shows the exterior of the Egyptian Theatre, a building with a tan facade and red decorative accents. A large, stylized sign with a blue and red winged background and a gold sun-like center is positioned above the entrance. The sign contains the text "WHY DID THIS THEATER GIVE OUT MONEY DURING THE DEPRESSION?" in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. Below the main sign, a smaller sign reads "EGYPTIAN THEATRE". The building features arched windows and decorative elements typical of Egyptian Revival architecture.
